MISS WAREHAM CONTESTANTS TO BE PRESENTED

The Wareham area Chamber of Commerce will present the Miss Wareham contestants to the public on the evening of May 16, 1970. This event will be held at Woodchips Motor Inn with a buffet to be served at 7:00 P.M. and dancing to follow. For those attending this affair dress will be informal and it is hoped that many will support this event since the proceeds will benefit the scholarships that are received by the Miss Wareham contestants.

This year's pageant will have many familiar faces in the production numbers -- such people as your reigning queen, Noreen McConnell; Donna Desjardins; Kathy Schaaf Loring; and Elaine Pearsons -- to refresh your memories these talented young women all were former Miss Wareham's and will return this year to participate in "The Impossible Dream", which is the theme of this year's Scholarship Pageant.

Young women from Cape Cod, Plymouth, Bourne, Wareham, Carver, Rochester, Marion, Middleboro and Mattapoisett are eligible for participation in the Miss Ware-

Junior Grange

JUNIOR GRANGE MEETING

Mattapoisett Junior Grange held its meeting last Friday night with the worthy master, James Livsey, presiding.

Home and Community Service Night was observed in charge of the chairman, Harlene Fearing.

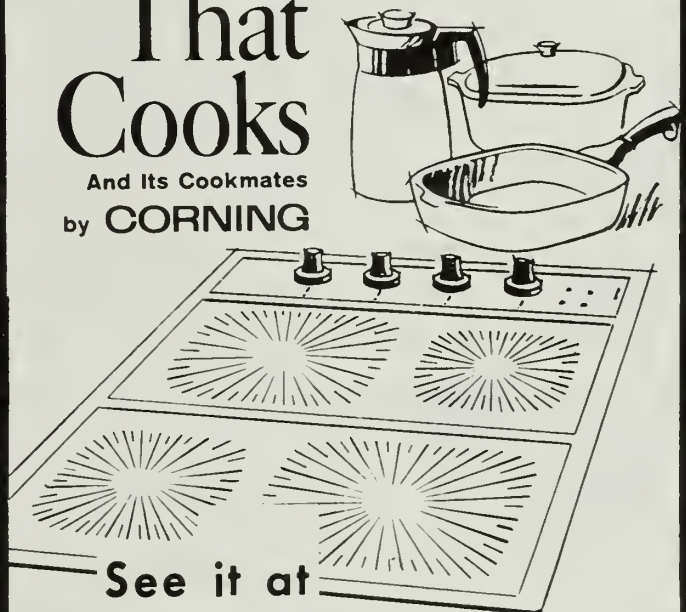

Harlene presented her sister, Miss Doris Fearing, who had served as Home and Community Service chairman and master of the Junior Grange. She gave a worthwhile and intellectual history of the Grange. Beginning at the start of the Grange, she gave short histories on the important people who were responsible for the organization. Some of the information was from the book, "The Grange - Friend of the Farmer", compiled and written by the late Charles M. Gardner, who at the time of its writing, was High Priest of Demeter of the National Grange. Several years ago the Mattapoisett Grange presented one of these books to the Public Library and the Center School Library.

Jack and Jimmie Price were voted into membership.

Combined Choruses

WELCOME SPRING WITH A SONG

For the first time in local history, two area choral groups are joining together to present a joint Spring concert program.

The two groups are the Regional Civic Chorus, led by Mr. Edward Roberts, and serving the people from Marion to Wareham; and the New Bedford Community Chorus, directed by Dr. Richard Marshall, with membership from Brockton, Mass. to Little Compton, Rhode Island, and most of the land in between. The combined groups total about 80 people.

The two directors have chosen a variety of music for the group to perform. Selections from folk, operatic, religious and modern idioms are now being rehearsed, all together guaranteed to satisfy a myriad of musical tastes.

The New Bedford area concert will take place on April 24th at 8 P.M. in the Keith Junior High School, Rockdale Avenue, New Bedford. A repeat performance for the Marion area will be staged on April 26th in the Old Rochester Regional High School, Route 6, Mattapoissett. Tickets will be available shortly from chorus members and also will be sold at the door.

Band Committee

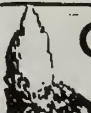

FUND RAISING GOAL SET

After careful study of the proposed bandstand to be erected at Shipyard Park, Mattapoissett, the Mattapoissett Band Committee announces that the fund raising goal has been set at $6,000., the bulk of which will go for construction needs. At the last meeting, the committee also discussed the need for landscaping as well as the advisability of acquiring a public address system. Both matters were deferred to a later meeting. Chairman Paul Alves reported that permission to solicit funds has been granted by the Board of Selectmen. All other business that came under discussion was that which related to plans for the fund raising campaign.

The Town Band Committee was appointed by the Board of Selectmen last Fall. Besides Mr. Alves, the committee includes Mr. George King, Mr. Archibald Lammey, Mr. John Pandolfi, Mrs. Louis Corey, Jr., Mrs. Alden S. Kinney and Mr. Bruce Rocha. Mrs. Corey is secretary and Mrs. Kinney is in charge of publicity. Meetings have been held frequently at the Town Hall. They have been open to the public with a number of interested towns-

Grange Activities

Mattapoisett Subordinate Grange will hold its bi-monthly meeting this Thursday night. The third and fourth degrees will be conferred with Deputy Milton Borden of Westport making his official visit.

The degrees are in charge of the youth of the Grange with Doris Fearing and Susan LaFleur in charge. This is a good omen for the Grange as these young people will be taking the place of the Grange oldsters one of these days. Mattapoisett Grange is very fortunate in the young folks who

DRIVE TO COLLECT SIGNATURES

During the week of April 16-22 the Marion League of Women Voters will be participating in a nationwide drive to collect signatures on a petition to win full congressional representation for the District of Columbia. The 800,000 citizens of Washington, D.C. are without a voice or a vote in the United States Congress, the body by which they are taxed.

The League will have booths in three towns on Saturday, April 18th, to enable people to sign and in this way take some part in trying to right this injustice to fellow citizens. In Marion Mrs. Tom Watson will be in charge of the booth in the parking lot next to Browne's Pharmacy from 9:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M.; there are also petition forms in the Elizabeth Taber Library on the League's bulletin board. In Wareham there will be a booth at the Wareham Plaza from 11 A.M. to 3 P.M. under the direction of Mrs. William Alcott and there will be petition forms in the Wareham Library as well. In Rochester Mrs. David Enroth will have a booth

Letters to The Editor

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Apparently at last Tuesday night's town meeting, my neighbor Paul Kelley misunderstood my remarks dealing with the dangerous practice that has been allowed in this town of tying cellar drains underground with street drains. As a result, he made a remark that intimated I was doing the very thing I was telling town meeting members should not be allowed.

To clarify this matter, I would like to say that neither I nor anyone else in Mattapoisett that I know of objects to using street drains to carry pumped-out cellar water as long as this does not cause a traffic hazard.

For several weeks during the year, I have to pump water from my cellar sump pump hole.
I pump it into my yard and what doesn't leach into the ground finds its way to the catch basin at John and Juniper Streets, I'm sure.
When the street drains were installed in my street three years ago, I did not tie into them with an underground drain from my cellar, not because I didn't trust myself, but frankly because I'm not sure that I could trust whoever buys my home when I'm ready to sell. For once these underground drains are tied in, there is no guarantee that only cellar water will flow through them into the street drains, then into rivers and streams and down to the shore.

No one is going to pump his detergent-filled washing machine water into his yard every day. But some persons won't hesitate to pump their washing machines, dishwashers and even sewage into the street drains through an underground connection in the home, especially since no one will be a witness to the deed.

There is no question that this is being done in town and that it has been done for many years. The stench in some of the catch basins in the center of town, especially during the dry summer months, is enough to knock a pedestrian down at times. The pollution in parts of Mattapoisett Harbor is directly related to the wrongful use of street drains. This isn't anything new. It has been a subject of discussion in town for some time. And it is a most unhealthy situation.

One way to control this problem is to com-

Friends;

The computer is certainly an amazing thing. But computer experts freely admit that information that comes out of a computer isn't any better than the information that is put into it in the first place.

Have you ever stopped to think how much your own life runs on the same basis?

What you put into your life determines pretty much what you are going to get out of it. This is why your thinking is so important.

Thousands have found that controlling their thinking is not a matter of exercising human will, but understanding and using their God-given rights to order, happiness, and a sense of purpose.

Nathaniel R. White, a former naval officer and business editor, and now a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, has some vital things to say about this on Thursday, in a talk entitled

"What Controls Your Thought?"

Mr. White will give this practical and inspiring lecture in should be barred from doing the same thing.

The amendment to the street drain installation article in the town warrant proposed by Dick Chase and agreed to by the article sponsors prohibits this tying-in practice on the Sherwood Avenue-Church Street Extension project. This marks the first time the town has taken such a step to correct an ever-growing problem and it's a step in the right direction.

With more and more homes being built in Mattapoissett, especially off North Street and in other areas where drainage flows into the Mattapoissett River Basin, or the marshlands or into beach areas, I think even more has got to be done.

I think the Selectmen, Planning Board,

Voyage of The Manta

The last complete whaling venture from the port of New Bedford, Mass.

Tuesday, August 18th - Still laying in calm. Very slight breeze just starting to blow up. Starboard watch is now flying jib (jib top'sle). When we have wind Captain takes in sail and when we haven't got it, he puts it on. Slight breeze, put up main'sle. Merchant and Minor S.S. passed. Land sighted through glass. Block Island light sighted at night.

Wednesday, August 19th - The slight breeze failed us last night and we are laying in a calm 35 miles from New Bedford. The food is awful soggy. Very light breeze, set main'sle. Just barely creeping along. Crew sighted land 4:45. Captain doesn't know just where he is. We don't know whether it's Gay Head or Cuttyhunk. LAND HO!!!! Breeze increased, set flying stay'sle. Dropped anchor at 11:15. Took in all sail. I was on watch as we approached land and was singing out lights, as we are supposed to. Shut up your head. That's the nice way we get our orders.

Thursday, August 20th - Took a bath today at daybreak. Hoisted anchor and set sails at 5:00. Foggy and rainy. Passed Colonel Green's at 7:00. Sailed up harbor to anchorage, did not use pilot. Dropped anchor

Tripp came aboard just before we went ashore and it sure did us good to see him. He took a few snaps and went ashore with crew. He was keeping some jewelry for us boys and he brought that out to us. Very thoughtful of him. He was a great help to us while he was on the ship the first six weeks. Also Don Waters. I had my first meal ashore with Tripp and I sure did enjoy it. Had fresh vegetables, milk and good appetizing food for the first time in four months. I then got some tobacco and went to visit my friends at C.F. Wing's. I was formerly employed there as an interior decorator. You ought to see the people stare at me. You see I came ashore with a four-months' beard and long hair. I could not sleep at night for the bed was too soft,

The Bourne Mill

BUZZARDS BAY AT THE BOURNE BRIDGE

could not get accustomed to it. Crossed last day off calendar.

Friday, August 21st - Went down to the 5 and 10 to see Arthur and then got my bags from the Whaling Outfitter. My wife did not seem to think much of my washing..

YWCA NEWS

Spring scenes recently arranged by Mrs. Donald C. Edwards of Westport now add an intriguing decor to our "New England Tohonomoma" in the Y lobby. Our niches skillfully transformed into Spring Garden and Spring in the Marshes show lifelike insects and birds made from nature materials flying among pussy willows and marsh grass.

Tickets for the mini-fashion show on April 22nd, following the quahog chowder luncheon at 12 noon are still available at the Y. Sportswear featured by Towne Shop Ltd. will include spring and summer styles. Models will be members of the YWCA.

Teachers are requested to contact Mrs. Rita Grenon, adult program director, giving suggestions for programs that the Y can schedule during school vacations, of special interest to the teachers.
